The Life of Guardians: The Story Of Maggie Cardinson

👁 6 ✓ 0 ★ 1

Chapter 1 by Trae Taylor

There once was a town filled with wonderful people and there was a very special woman in that town called Maggie "two life" cardinson she was named that because after her previous town burnt down she started a new life. She was so special because she was a guardian of life. There are many guardians of life but she was special because one day everything changes. there once before was a crisis where the corruption got out of control. many guardians died and there was a Great War called the war of crimson. The war of crimson was named after the violent blood bath that took place. The creatures of corruption were orcs trolls and some sort of gozer which is an entity made completely out of shadows. The day everything changed everything started normal she got dressed washed her clothes made her sheets headed to work but when she got there she felt that something was wrong. When she got to her office everything was dark. She saw something move out of the corner of her eye and she was hit upside the head.

Chapter 1

When Maggie woke up she was in an interesting place. Her surroundings were dark and damp. The room smelled of must. When she finally got a sense of her surroundings she realized any sound she made echoed throughout the whole place and the place seemed to stretch for miles.

She had a feeling that something was wrong but she didn't know what. She slowly got up.

When she finally had the strength to stand up she felt really light headed and fell over hitting her head on a rock.
